

END EXPLOITATION

WE DEMAND SEPARATE DEVELOPMENT

CONTINUING THE RACE THEME of our last issue and the NF's present national campaign, NF News this issue looks at the practicalities of Repatriation. We do not pretend that these proposals would be easy to implement, nor that they would not cause temporary unhappiness for some people. But we do believe that this peaceful and humane end to the failed multi-racial experiment in this country is better than the explosion of bloody racial violence which is inevitable if nothing is done.

We do not blame the immigrants for having been lured to our country by false promises of wealth and happiness. We do not hate coloured peoples, nor do we wish them any harm. The real enemies of us all — Black, Brown and Yellow as well as White — are the capitalist, Marxist and Zionist race-haters who seek to destroy our separate racial and cultural identities through race-mixing.

HOW WOULD THEY GO?

FIVE MILLION immigrants and their descendants will be resettled abroad over 10 years at a rate of 100,000 families each year — around 500,000 people.

British Airways carries nearly thirty times that number of passengers each year, so it won't be difficult. It works out at fewer than 1,500 people a day — around three plane-loads. Heathrow airport could deal with them in about ten minutes.

HOW MUCH WILL IT COST?

AS WELL as their fare home, each family will receive a £5,000 resettlement grant. This is five times the sum suggested by the West Indian run "Home-ward Bound" repatriation scheme set up by the East London Black community leader Dr. Ashton Gibson in 1981.

This may sound a lot, but the social security programme now costs over £2,000 per family each year in any case. In addition it costs the taxpayer thousands of pounds a year to keep an unemployed man and his family. Since around 20% of Black adults are unemployed, we would quickly save money by paying them to go home.

It will also lead to 50% more houses being made available to new occupiers every year. This would slash the amount spent on expensive and unsatisfactory temporary accommodation for homeless families. So we can afford to give the coloured victims of multi-racial exploitation a decent grant to start their new lives in their own homelands.

WHERE WILL THEY GO?

BACK TO their own lands of ethnic origin or, if they wish, to developing countries such as Brazil, which will welcome British trained immigrants.

WHY SHOULD THEY BE ACCEPTED?

BECAUSE THEY belong there. But also because those countries desperately need the skills that they will bring. For example, with more than 5,000 White doctors on the dole, Britain does not need Coloured doctors, but in poor countries like India they would save thousands of lives.

We will help these countries build up their economies in return for help in taking returning immigrants. The West Indies, India and Pakistan will each be given £400 Million every year in special aid to help them absorb the extra people. This will still cost less than is at present squandered on foreign aid.

WHAT ABOUT THEIR BELONGINGS?

RETURNING IMMIGRANTS will be allowed to take with them the proceeds Immigrants have always suffered oppression and injustice in British society. In the centenary year of that great man, Marcus Garvey, it is perhaps more important than ever that like-minded peoples begin to work together for the benefit of all races.

of the sale of their homes and businesses. This will have little effect on our economy as it will only amount to a tiny fraction of the £1 Billion at present sent out of Britain every three months by unpatriotic big investors (a drain of capital which will be halted by law on the first day of NF government).

Immigrants who have worked and paid taxes in Britain will be paid their pensions in full even after they return home.

With this varied and generous financial help, these people will be able to set themselves up comfortably in their own lands as useful and productive citizens.

Dangerous dogma of equality

Sir — K M Twyford's accusations ("Observer" July 3rd) cannot remain unchallenged.

1). The English language as defined by bourgeois academics may be binding on international socialists but is certainly not binding on national revolutionaries. We in the NF will continue to assert that racialism is in fact a recognition of the unbridgeable racial and cultural gulf that exists between any number of separate peoples.

Notions of superiority emanate from the minds of socially-inadequate bigots.

2). It is true that the British people are derived from a number of white European tribes; the implication that a passport issued by a Government which is composed of the hired servants of international capitalism is in any way a determining factor in what constitutes a British person is not only a denial of common sense, but is furthermore an admission of the legitimacy of the "British" state.

3). The American "melting pot" is certainly the best example of what results from the assimilation of originally healthy cultures into a soulless Yankee non-culture. Given similar conditions, this catastrophe will happen anywhere in the world. What is needed to reverse the cultural stagnation brought about in our country by Westminster imperialism is the re-discovery of the diverse cultures native to these islands.

4). K M Twyford is absolutely correct in claiming that a divided populace makes revolution less likely which is precisely why the capitalist governments have brought in successive waves of immigrants to destroy the racial and social solidarity of our communities.

5). Far from blaming our country's terminal problems on "the most easily identifiable minorities," we on the contrary blame the "privileged elite" of capitalism and their communist lackeys in the national media. It follows then that the extreme left are the real "bootboys of capitalism" and not national revolutionary forces throughout the world.

6). K M Twyford's critique of capitalism was a correct but one-sided argument: "equality, nepotism and privilege" are equally the hallmarks of communism/socialism in practice.

7). As national revolutionaries, members of the NF believe that equality of opportunity will provide social justice.

K M Twyford et al assert that all political systems throughout the world should be based on the false promise of a blanket human equality.

as was first espoused by 18th century liberalism and later adopted by Karl Marx.

The dogma of egalitarianism has already led to the horrific genocidal policies of the Communist Party of Cambodia (now Kampuchea). If individuals there confessed to skills or the most elementary education, their lives were immediately extinguished by the bayonets and clubs of Pol Pot's red thugs. Over a third of the eight million population were disposed of in less than four years.

How does K M Twyford explain the recognition by Reagan, Thatcher and other high priests of the capitalist system, at the United Nations, of this now-defunct bloody regime?

8). Regular readers of this column should be disturbed by K M Twyford's attempt to deny a legitimate political movement the right to free expression, since "thought-policing" is generic for those who promote allegiance to the capitalist/communist axis — Yours etc, (Secretary, East Lancashire National Front, Devonshire Street, Accrington.

LOCAL PRESS publicity about the Race campaign has already started to come in. Once again, Blackpool NFN Supporters were first past the post, with this coverage in the Blackpool Gazette.

Members of the National Democratic Front, the US equivalent of the NF, joined their British counterparts to hand out leaflets in Poulton and St Annes.

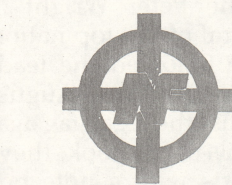

The leaflets were in support of American black leader Louis Farrakhan who is campaigning in the US for a separate black state.
